[COMMUNICATED.]

The Hon. General Randolph, Secretary of War.

SIR: A French army of two hundred thousand soldiers, during two winter campaigns on Crimea, enjoyed better health and suffered less than the English, Sardinian or Turkish armies on that same field of war, and it was the French army who performed all the work and took the Malakoff under command of the brave conscript soldier, Marshal Pelissier, now Duke of Malakoff. A good general like Pelissier or Jackson, is better than many good for nothing.

I am going to tell you how French soldiers live on the camp. At breakfast they have strong coffee with sugar, bread and biscuit, butter or cheese, and a bowl of bean soup. At dinner a substantial meat soup with peas or beans, unions, potatoes, bread or biscuit, rice, meat and a bottle of wine or beer. At Supper coffee or cocoa, bread and meat. The soldier must be nourished well to have strength to fight.—People say in the streets that horses in the army are taken better care of than soldiers, because horses cost money. Everything necessary to the comfort of the soldier on the field, must be taken by money or by force, from the stores of infernal speculators. I just came from South Carolina, there a speculator told me "if this war will last wo years more I will have as much money as I may wish to have."

Good cooks are very necessary in the army. We have bloody battles to fight; everything must be improved daily for the comfort of the soldiers. Thousands of battles will be fought; millions of men will disappear from the surface of the earth, to satisfy the brutal wickedness of Horace Greeley, Seward, Lincoln and the godless Yankee freelovers. Let foreign nations know it exactly as it is true. England and France have been deceived with the infamous lies of the Yankee Minister Adams. The Yankees have more tricks than the devil himself. The whole world is against us, because the lies of Seward have made people in Europe believe that the sole object of our revolution is to support slavery. That is a big lie. Ten millions of people in England and France live on the produce of American cotton. The soil of the South cannot produce cotton but with slave labor. We have reason for keeping slaves in the South, to supply England and France with an article which is for the people in those countries a necessary of life. The promise made by the Minister, Adams, in Europe is this: "If England will let the war go on, the Federal government will give freedom to four millions of slaves to murder the white race in the Confederacy."

In conclusion let me tell you that many quacks have gone to the army to get appointments and to learn how to shave in the beards of the fool. Of course there are in the army many skillful physicians who are not drunkards nor quacks, but there are also many who have never learned in a Medical College, and besides that are Whiskey Doctors. Thousands of brave soldiers have died of diarrhœa, etc. Here is my medical prescription for curing diarrhœa:

R. Opium 40 grains, Crystilized Nitrate of Silver 20 grains, Creosote 8 drops, Gum Arabic and Liquorice sufficient. Make 40 pills. Dose, one pill every two hours till relief is obtained.

Sir, I am credibly informed that the soldier is living (if that is to live,) on meat only! Many days the flour is left on the field for want of means to make bread!—Good cooks in each company must prepare the meals for the soldiers. Our anchor of hope is the soldier; the soldier above all must be treated with the comforts of life let it cost what it may.

To my knowledge, and let it remain in the records of history, all the women in the Confederacy are proud to be Southern women, and to kill every Yankee if they could, but there are thousands of domestic traitors in our midst, with white face and a damned Yankee black heart. Let them go to hell as soon as possible. This is my article No. 337 published in the newspapers in this country and in France, since the infernal reign of Lincoln.

Very Respectfully,
Dr. R. V. LEMOINE.

A YANKEE FRIGATE SUNK.—Subaltern," the Vicksburg correspondent of the Appeal, represents the down ward passage of the Federal steamers past the batteries on the night of the 15th, as having been very disastrous, though the full extent of the mischief was not apprehended until five or six days afterwards, nor is it yet completely known. He says:

Yesterday, several officers of our regiment went to the bank of the river, three miles below the city, and immediately opposite the main body of the enemy's boats. Right before them, and in plain view, lay the remain of a large first class frigate. She had drifted, in a hopeless condition, from the main channel, (which turned to the right one mile above, making a sharp angel,) down an old channel upon this side of the island. There she grounded hard and fast. Her masts were all gone, her guns taken from her, and, in a word, the once magnificent frigate was completely dismantled. She was perforated with holes from stem to stern, and bore plain evidences of having been raked from end to end by our guns. As no name is ever lettered upon men-of war, it is not known what one this was, and for further information, we will have to wait the enemy's account.

At a distance of one mile and a half above the dismantled frigate, our officers saw a large gunboat seriously disabled. She appeared from the opposite shore to be fully three hundred feet long, powerfully constructed, iron-clad, and bearing a heavy armament. She was moored close to the bank, was careened very much toward this side, and many holes from cannon balls plainly visible along her side. Our officers were there on duty during the day and night, and all that time her pumps were working constantly, while the carpenter's hammer could incessantly be heard. She bore every indication of being in a condition that required all the energies of her crew to keep her afloat. The three remaining vessels of the five were not to be seen anywhere. How they came out we will know at some future day.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Later from the North.

PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.

The Express has New York dates of the 28th and 29th ult. The Fortress Monroe correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says he is credibly informed that large Rebel forces are now on the line of James river, above the junction of the Appomattox and the James, supposed to be between fifty and seventy thousand, and "Stonewall Jackson" in command.

On the night of the 24th, a company of Rebel cavalry dashed down on Gloucester Point, opposite Yorktown, and carried off a large lot of contrabands, forced in the Rebel army all the male inhabitants, and they secured a lot of ship timber, and taking with them trophies departed. Similar depredations were committed in the vicinity of Williamsburg, on the night of the 25th. The Rebels made incursions into the lines of McClellan's army, and carried off a large number of army beeves.

Two thousand contrabands passed Old Point on the 26th, on their way to McClellan.

Jeff. Davis' mail carrier, running to Norfolk, was caught Friday, with 2,000 letters.

Fifteen or twenty rebels, captured near Suffolk, have reached Fortress Monroe.

Gen. Pope took the field last Monday. There has been numerous desertions from his army. Between 40 and 50 of the 105th New York deserted within the past week.

On the 25th, four guerillas fired upon and wounded two Federals near Warrenton. Capt. Williams, of the Michigan Cavalry, went out and brought in eight unoffending Virginians, who are to be held responsible.

Within three days past, Gen. Hatch has crossed Swift Run Gap to McGaheysville. The people of Culpeper, Orange and Madison were thunderstruck at the recent sudden appearance of the Union forces under Hatch.

A despatch dated Cairo, 26th ult., says the steamer from the Tennessee river brings up news of a Rebel raid at Florance, Ala., on Tuesday. The rebels entered the city, burned the warehouses, filled with Yankee commissary and quartermaster stores, and also burnt all the cotton in the vicinity. They seized the Yankee steamer Colonnia used for conveying army supplies over the shoals, took all the money that belonged to the boat and passengers, and then burnt the boat. The property destroyed is reported to be immensely valuable. A small detachment of Mitchel's army was captured. The Rebels then proceeded down the Tennessee to Chicasaw, Waterloo, and the vicinity of Eastport, and burnt all the warehouses containing cotton.

Another band of forty rebels attacked a wagon train near Pitsburg Landing, and captured sixty wagons filled with government stores.

NEW ALBANY, July 27.

The Ledger says that the rebels congregated in considerable force at Halvesville, Ky., and boldly and defiantly insulted the Union citizens.

Passengers from Henderson say that guerillas have appeared in strong force opposite Mound City. It was feared they would attempt to burn the Union gunboats building there.

NASHVILLE, July 29.

The 10th Ohio Regiment, guarding the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, between Decatur and Courtland, was attacked, yesterday, by a large force of guerillas, and 30 or 40 of the Regiment were killed. The road was considerably damaged.

A large rebel force is near Tuscumbia. Forest is reported to be at Carthage, with the object of making a decent on the Louisville Railroad.

NEW YORK, July 28.

News from Fortress Monroe to-day, that the unbiquitous Jackson was demonstrating down the left bank of the James, made some stir here, and nervous people were uneasy, until a later telegram was received announcing the arrival of Porter's mortar fleet intended fort Darling, (Drewry's Bluff,) made all right again.

Cotton Dull—trifling sales 1s 43a44 cts for middling upland. Exchange 129a129¼ Gold lower opening at 117 1-4 a 117-5-8, closing at 116 1-2a116 3-4, Government stocks lower. The losses in the Western Department by official count since the war commenced is given in the N. Y. Tribune at 630,500.

The Enemy in Prince George County.

PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.

The enemy landed a large force at two points on the south side of James river, Saturday night, variously estimated at from six to ten thousand, comprising infantry, artillery and cavalry.

There was a brisk skirmish to-day at Cox's Mill Creek, in Prince George, between fifty of the 13th Virginia Cavalry and eighty Yankee Cavalry. Our loss was one killed, three wounded, and two missing. Yankee cavalry were at Gainsville, at one o'clock to-day.

Important from Kinston.

The Yankees again advancing by land and water.

GOLDSBORO, August 3.

A special dispatch from Goldsboro', dated 2d inst, states that dispatches had been received from Kinston announcing that the enemy were advancing their land forces in two columns by the Trent and Dover roads, and their gunboats by the Neuse river, the latter shelling the woods as they advance.

The river quite high from the late rains.

The firing of the guns was distinctly heard at our camps near Kinston.

Colonel Solomon Williams, acting Brigadier-General, had gone down to meet the Yankees, and will give them a warm reception at Kinston.

Battle at Orange C. H.

RICHMOND, Aug. 4.

Eight hundred Yankee cavalry attacked 200 Confederates under Gen. Robertson, yesterday morning, on this side of Orange Court House.

The Confederates repulsed the enemy and drove him back to Barnett's, where a brisk skirmish took place, but a large reinforcement of the enemy appearing on the flank of the Confederates, they fell back towards Gordonville, bringing off nine prisoners after killing two and wounding a number.

Five Confederates were wounded and several are missing.

Northern News.

RICHMOND, Aug 4.

Northern dates of the 30th July have been recived, and by them we learn that the steamer Reliance, from Georgia, bound to Nassau with a cargo of cotton, has been captured by the Yankees.

The office of the St. Croix Herald, published at St. Stephens, (New Brunswick,) has been destroyed by a mob for supporting the Union cause.

Andy Johnston has sent the Rev'ds. Messrs Elliott, Ford and Baldwin to the Indiana Penitentiary.

Gold is quoted in New York at 116.

THE BULLETIN
THE CATAWBA JOURNAL.

WE are pleased to announce to the friends and readers of this establishment that we commence the publication of the second volume of the new paper, to-day, under the most favorable auspices.

The circulation of the above named paper is rapidly increasing, and its influence as an advertising medium is being felt and appreciated by the business men of this place, so almost every neighbor here in this and adjoining Counties, as well as the adjoining States in North Carolina.

THE CATAWBA JOURNAL, One of the largest papers now published in the State, comes up fresh from the press of the Daily, and not only that, but a full corps of writers are employed to make up from the columns of the Daily, that are not suitable for a weekly paper, and all the news of the week, so that the subscribers of this paper will be supplied with a complete Family Newspaper.

The additional facilities to the Publishers of the Journal, have increased the circulation of the paper to a large extent, and we are determined to keep pace with the improvements of the age; their motto is "PROGRESSION," and as the circulation of THE TIMES enlarged each year, they are determined to add new attractions to its columns and make it the literary paper of the South. With this end in view, the present extensive and rapidly increasing circulation.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER
THE TIMES!
A large Eight Page Weekly published in Greensboro.
$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being neutral on all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronise home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. E. Edwards.

"Seems to me pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Bloomington Herald

"One of the best Family papers published in the State."—Spirit of the Age.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE Mercury gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" affords the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interests, and the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the Mercury consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

THE FARMER AND PLANTER REMOVED TO
COLUMBIA, S. C.

HAVING purchased of Maj. Geo. Seaborn this popular journal, I have removed the place of publication to Columbia, and will hereafter issue it from this city at regular stated periods.

Feeling confident that such a journal is greatly needed in this State, and believing that it will be conducted, if possessed of the Capital of the State and connected with public and official, I have determined to make it worthy the patronage and support of every Planter in the State. I intend to encourage the production of home manufactures, and to make it a medium through which the Planter may exchange with, and obtain reliable information from, his fellow Planters in every section of the State.

It will be published on the first and fifteenth of each month, and will contain sixteen large pages, printed on good paper, with new type, and will be furnished to subscribers at the low price of ONE DOLLAR per annum, always in advance.

A part of the time I shall be absent from the office, soliciting subscriptions, but will be at home generally, and in the Editorial room every day, except Sundays.

[COMMUNICATED.]

War—Home to the Yankees.

The law of retaliation is a divine law from the beginning of the world"—"Might makes right."

This war could have been finished a few days, after the battle of Manassa; but the infernal defensive policy of Benjamin Davis, prevailed and Johnston and Beauregard were ordered not to advance on Washington. The panic at Washington lasted a fortnight; the Congress was in session; our army could have been posted at Arlington Hights without the least difficulty. A bold General could dictate terms of peace to Lincoln, or otherwise, reduce to ashes the Capitol of the United States.

The faults of Davis—Benjamin in that (and perhaps every day) cannot be retrived. Jefferson Davis is not the man to be the practical leader of this great revolution. With prayer and fasting he can make himself a pretty good Pope of Rome, but with his ridiculous prayers and fasting, he will never catch the Yankees.

The defensive policy of Benjamin Davis have almost killed the Confederacy—the blood of thousands of brave soldiers have saved the Confederacy. Had McClellan attacked the lines of Richmond two weeks before the arrival of Jackson, McClellan could have taken Richmond, but McClellan has proved to be a coward.

Some persons are afraid to commence retaliation because the tyrant Butler has one hundred and fifty thousand prisoners. I am going to tell you how the population of New Orleans is devided. Before the war we had in that city, two hundred thousand persons. Now, thirty thousand are in the army. Thirty thousand are strict subjects of the Emperor. Very few Frenchmen are American citizens. Thirty thousand are damned Yankees or Northern traitors.—Fifty thousand are Irish and Dutch. Forty thousand are native Southern people. Forty thousand are Spaniards, Italian and Portugueese. The French are at home, because New Orleans belongs to France. The rest of the foreign population at New Orleans, love the Union because the yankees feed and cloth them with the credit system. If Butler wishes to murder them, I tell to Butler—you have my consent.

With regard to the American population of the Forty thousand, at New Orleans, we can retaliate in four hundred thousand Yankees very easily. Friends, we are not playing marbles. Every day are acts of infernal tyranny committed by the soldiers of Lincoln against men, women and children in the South. Those who are opposed to the act of retaliation are traitors to the South. I pray God in the sincerity my heart, to inspire the Legislative body at Richmond, to pass the Law of Retaliation.

I am the father of the project of the Conscript Law. I am the father of the project of the Guerrilla Law. Now I propose the Law of Retaliation. Twenty thousand negroes, our slaves, are already in the army of Lincoln, perfectly armed, ravaging our white women, robbing, murdering and setting fire. In Heaven's name! in Heaven's name! let us have the Law of Retaliation. Butler is a man and I am nothing less than a man. Let the Law of Retaliation pass, and we will see what Butler and Pope will do. It is a great pity that we are obliged to act in self defense, but we are provoked to do so. Let independent guerrillas take charge of the Law of Retaliation on the borders of the Yankee States, and —— no more prisoners of war. Guerrilla men go on the free States and do exactly as Butler and Pope are doing, "to rob, to murder, to set fire and to ravage all the Yankee women."

The exchange of prisoners is another proof of the imbecility of Davis Benjamin government. During several months we had four generals made prisoners by the Yankees, suffering all the horrors of tyranny. We never thought of exchanging them. As soon as Gen. Sumner, brother of Senator Sumner, and nine Yankee generals more, were made our prisoners, Lincoln immediately proposed an exchange of prisoners.

[From the Richmond Examiner.]

"It is understood that the Confederate Government will order Major Gen. McCall and Brigadier Gen. Sumner to be hanged in retaliation for the cruelties of Butler and Pope."

[From the Richmond Whig.]

"The world has adjudged Butler and Pope to be two infamous monsters unfit to live, and the man or woman, boy or girl, who dispatches them will make an honored name in history."

President Davis by his Proclamation, have declared as out-laws both Butler and Pope, and invite people to murder these two infernal brutes. It is better late than never.

My project of the Law of Retaliation is respectfully submitted to the legislative body at Richmond. I have to propose my project No. 4 on the Law of the Markets as it was in France established by the First Napoleon. He it was who put a stop to the mob law of the speculators, by affixing a price by law to everything sold in France.

I have also to offer my project No. 5 for a recompense of honor to the gallant generals and naval officers who have performed extraordinary services, viz: Gens. Jackson, Price, Johnson, Van Dorn, Jeff. Thompson, Morgan, Hill, Hardee, Breckinridge, Longstreet, Magruder, Anderson, Forrest, Hindman, Stuart and others like these—fighting generals. Also Captain Buchanan and Lieut. Brown of the ram Arkansas. I believe in bread and butter, but I don't believe in a general that fall back, disband armies, or runaway without fighting the enemy.

Dr. R. V. LEMOINE.

CHARLOTTE.

Rumors of Recognition.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 5th inst. contains among its selections from late Northern papers the annexed paragraph:

Rumors were afloat that a member of the British legation had received a letter from Lord Lyons announcing that the British Government has determined to recognize the Southern Confederacy. The parties from whom this information is derived state they have seen the letter, but it was not credited generally. If true the belief was that it would vastly stimulate recruiting all over the country.

The Herald's Account.

The New York Herald gives the following account of the recent burning of the Federal transports in James river, an account of which has already appeared in our columns.—Richmond Enquirer.

On Friday evening the rebels crossed over the river a little above Harrison's Landing and took a Captain off a schooner, burned the vessel, and then went and drove away five hundred cattle belonging to the army of the Potomac; and these cattle are said to have been at least a mile within our picket lines. Owing to this loss no beef could be obtained at Harrison's Landing for those on board the Maine.

Another Outrage.

Friday evening last, the Yankees infesting the waters of James river landed at "Maycocks," the elegant residence of Mrs Dr. Wm. Cole, and set fire to the dwelling and all the out houses which were completely destroyed:

Mrs. Cole and her children were absent at the house of a neighbor, but her comfortable home and all the furniture it contained, has fallen a prey to Yankee meanness and malignity.

The dwelling at Maycocks was one of the handsomest specimens of cottage architecture on James river, nearly new, and cost some $15,000.—Richmond Enquirer.

The Coming Election in Kentucky.

Gen. Coyle has issued an order declaring that no person hostile in opinion to the United States Government, and desiring its overthrow, will be allowed to stand for office in Kentucky. The attempt of such a person to stand for office "will be regarded as in itself sufficient evidence of his treasonable intent to warrant arrest."

The Federal prisoners captured near Madison Court House, Va., on Tuesday last, state that the main body of the Federal army is in Culpeper, near the Rapidan river, and that a forward movement is daily contemplated. At Madison Court House the force consists of about 30,000 infantry, with some artillery and cavalry, under the immediate command of the Dutch General, Siegel.

HOW THE YANKEES BUY UP THEIR FIGHTING MATERIAL.—In one town in Massachusetts the other day a bounty fund was subscribed, equal to three hundred and thirty-three dollars for each man of the quota called for from the town. It is said that larger bounties are given for nine month's men in Massachusetts than were paid in France for a substitute for seven year's service under the conscription acts.

The people of certain sections of Ohio have become alarmed at the influx of fugitive slaves. The farmers are discharging their harvest hands and hiring runaway negroes, who offer to work for less than half what is paid for white labor. Almost every county bordering on the Ohio river has its quota of fugitives.

Appointments.

List of visitors for the Hospital for the week commencing Wednesday last:

Friday—Mrs. Young, and Miss Brown.
Saturday—Mrs. Stockwins and Miss Moss.
Sunday—Mrs. Hugh.

Tuesday—Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Prince.
Wednesday—Mrs. Dewey and Mrs. Wilson.

Fredericksburg.

News from Fredericksburg as late as to the 31st ult. (says the Richmond Enquirer,) states that the citizens of that town have to a man nobly resolved not to take Lincoln's oath of allegiance, as required by Pope's Order, but to submit to compulsory exile, as the alternative of refusal. All honor to so proud an example! Among them is the venerable Judge Lomax, one of the purest men that ever lived, and now in extreme age. The venerable patriot and good man, has with many others, his trunk already packed, prepared to submit to the tyranny which can drive him from his home, but cannot put a stain upon his honor. May age deal very greatly with the noble old man, and may thousands of strong arms and brave hearts avenge his foul wrongs!

Startling Reports from the North.

A gentleman arrived in the city on yesterday (says the Richmond Enquirer of the 5th inst.,) who had seen Baltimore papers of the 1st inst., in which, he states, he read statements to the effect that Pennsylvania, Connecticut and Ohio refuse to furnish their quota to the federal army; that Mr. Vallandigham (of Ohio) had been arrested for stumping the State and making anti-war speeches; and that Seward has resigned his position as Secretary of State. It is supposed that he anticipates foreign intervention and wants to get out of the way. This intelligence seems almost too good to be true. If true, we may look out for squalls in the Yankee territory.

P. S.—Since the above was in type, we have received a telegraphic despatch corroborative of the intelligence given—which see in another column.

BUELL'S ARMY.—"Ora," the correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser and Register, writing from Chattanoogs, under date of July 24th, says:

By a gentleman who arrived here last evening from Bridgeport, Ala., I have received some further particulars in reference to Buell's army, which is now nearly all concentrated near that point. McCook's Division is said to be in the advance, with the Brigades of Gens. Tom. Crittenden and Johnston, the latter said to be a brother of the late General Albert Sidney Johnston. My informant states the whole force to be about 35,000. He says that the road from Stevenson to Nashville had not yet been repaired, (it having been torn up from the tunnel, twenty miles from Stevenson, and several bridges burned,) and consequently that Buell's supplies were still cut off. Their army was living on half rations, and the greatest insubordination existed among the Yankee troops. It was thought it would take some ten days to reorganize the army, in order to put it in fighting condition to advance on Chattanooga, which it would now seem has become a dernier resort, in order for Buell to save himself, if it be true that his supplies and retreat to Nashville be cut off. It was believed that it it were practicable for Buell to reach Nashville with his troops, he would gladly have given up Andy Johnson's mad project of taking East Tennessee, and even abandoned Middle Tennessee, so as to reach his old stand point at Bowling Green, for the defence of Kentucky. His army is principally composed of Indiana and Illinois troops, with the 77th Pennsylvania, three from Missouri, and some Kentucky and Ohio regiments.

On the night of the 3d of July the secessionists of Middletown, Delaware, hoisted a Confederate flag on a pole which had been erected by the Unionists, and that early on the morning of the 4th the "Stars and Bars" were saluted with forty rounds by the supporters of the Abolition Government. When they discovered their mistake they were so enraged that they immediately hauled down the flag and tore it into shreds, and vigorously applied themselves to washing the pold with soap and water to clense it from the polluting effects of the Confederate banner.
